Theme: Making a Difference by Connecting Research, Practice and Community for Improved Outcomes Learning Outcomes: At the conclusion of the conference, learners should be able to:

1. Adapt and apply identified strategies for improving or building an emphasis on evidence-based practice and quality improvement within their healthcare organizations
2. Develop strategies for increased patient and community engagement for all types and levels of healthcare
3. Compare and contrast the benefits of community and patient engagement within research efforts, direct clinical environments and policy development
4. Build capacity for interprofessional teams prepared to lead community-guided health care, where patients, families and health care teams meet
5. Recognize the role of collaborative, community partnerships in policymaking

Abstracts chosen for podium presentations will be placed in a breakout session; each presentation will last approximately 25 minutes.
